years, because these would be infla...certainly for the next two years, and we have to think about what might be happening in Nebraska in the next two years. But I am going to, I think, have a vote on this amendment when the time comes because the policy decision to be made is whether we want to go with the...with the average weekly wage indexed as it is, without the...with the awkward construction that is in 286, or, in fact, if we want to keep the system in place that we have for the next two years. So, with that, I would close my...stop my opening. Thank you.
